

Helping Out at Home

I live in a house with my family.

My mom and dad are very busy taking care of our family every day.

They go to work.

They cook food for the family.

They clean the house.

They read to me at bedtime.

Taking care of the family is a big job for my mom and dad.

They get very tired!

I am big enough to help my mom and dad by doing chores in the house. These are some chores I can help them with:

I can pick up toys.

I can make my bed.

I can take my dirty clothes to the basket.

My parents may keep a chart with chores for me to do.

When I help with chores, it shows how responsible and caring I am. This makes my family happy. It makes me happy, too.

My Chores

make my bed

pick up toys

Pick up dirty clothes

sort clean socks

dust furniture

sweep floors

carry grocery inside

set the table

Wash dishes
